I x impossible gifts for Mum and dad

These are the gifts that I would if I could give to you,

A plume of snow from a unicorn's tail
A gush of light from the spout of a whale
The spindly tips of the morning dew
All these gifts I would give to you

The blaze of midnight turning to dawn
The glimmering silk sky that will never be born
The whisper of a fairy's melody
The yats from a weathered old oak tree

The pride and courage of Rosa Parks
A heavenly sounding roll of lark
The angels with their pure white pearls
The nobility that belongs to larks

The world all wrapped in a box
The radiant hair of Goldie Locks
The ocean with its crests of blue
Yes all these things I'd give to you
